

CARELESS MAN'S GUN

E. J. Richards, of Collinston, is the Latest Victim.

BULLET IN THE ABDOMEN

SINKING RAPIDLY AND NOT EXPECTED TO RECOVER.

No Doctor Has Yet Arrived—Prominent Sheep Man at Brigham Sustains Serious Injuries—Sanity of an Onset Man Established at Provo—Paanguitch Crops.

[From The Herald's Correspondents.]
Collinston, Utah, Nov. 29.—E. J. Richards, 21 years of age, a son of Ed Richards of this place, is lying at the point of death, from the effects of a pistol wound accidentally inflicted by David Neal, a sheepherder from Idaho. Neal was handling the revolver, a 44-calibre Colt's, when it was discharged through carelessness.
The ball entered Richards' body just above the navel, and ranged to the left side, but has not been located. His doctor has yet arrived. He is sinking fast, and very little hope is entertained of his recovery.

LOGAN BRIEFS.

Movement to Defeat Benson—Marriage License Issued.

Logan, Nov. 29.—The Republicans of Logan fifth ward are becoming fearful through current reports, that Lorenzo Benson, Republican nominee on the non-partisan ticket, will be defeated tomorrow, as great dissatisfaction is being expressed. It is expected that a dark horse will be brought into the race in time to win.

The following marriage licenses have been issued by Clerk Mathews during the past few days: Augustus Hardy of Fielding, and Amelia Lindquist of Logan; Nathan E. Cutler, Jr., and Ida E. Lish, both of McCammon, Ida; John B. Wyatt of Wellsville, and Martha Hartman of Mt. Sterling; Joseph B. Brown of Wellsville and Nellie B. Baxter of Mt. Sterling; Samuel P. Ewing and Lena M. Hansen, both of Wellsville; John W. Yates of Wellsville, and Elizabeth J. Walker of Wellsville; Frederick T. Darley and Maria G. Parkinson, both of Wellsville.

Mr. Ed Burgeon, a leading merchant from Montpelier, Ida., is in Logan, the guest of "Uncle Dave" Reem.
F. M. Maughan of Wellsville reached Logan this morning from making a shipment of hoes to Butte. He reports the hog market depressed with the prospect of an improvement before the first of the year.
Ernest Needham, son of Patriarch John Needham of Logan, who is laboring as a missionary in the Hawaiian states, mission is reported seriously ill in Tennessee.

A GREAT WHEAT MARKET.

Corinne is One of the Liveliest of Utah Towns.

Corinne, Utah, Nov. 29.—Seventy-two teams from Malad, Ida., arrived tonight on the evening train from the depot. They came loaded with wheat, and will go home loaded with goods. This city is the great wheat market for northern Utah and southern Idaho. The wheat looks like the tinned corn ground of an army camp, with the covered wagons as thick as they can be placed together. That is the way they are coming day after day.

It can never be dull times in a city that furnishes the farmers a market like this. The merchants are doing a tremendous business and are accordingly happy.
Many new families are locating here from the east and many more who have purchased land during the summer will bring their families early in the spring. Houses to rent are scarce and it would be a profitable investment for some one to build a few neat cottages.

PANGUITCH CROPS.

Thirty-Three Thousand Bushels of Grain Threshed.

Panguitch, Nov. 29.—The grain in the Panguitch valley is threshed and in the bins, 16,500 bushels of wheat, 21,438 bushels of oats and about 1,000 bushels of barley is the crop returns to the Panguitch farmers for the year 1897. Yield is normal.

District court of the Sixth judicial district was postponed from the 2nd day of December (without a day set) on account of pressure of business of the judge, Hon. William M. McCarthy.

Panguitch stock conference convened in Panguitch today. Apostle A. O. Woodruff, Hon. William H. Seegmiller, president of the Sevier state, and a Mr. Parsons, of Z. C. M. L. were present.

The weather for three days past has been about zero, with one inch of snow upon the ground.

Two men, whose names are withheld, were held to await the action of the district court at its next sitting in Panguitch, by the justice of the peace at Escalante last week, charged with cattle stealing.

NOT A LUNATIC.

Inquiry Into the Mental Condition of an Onias Man.

Provo, Nov. 29.—William Webster, a transient, has been acting in such a peculiar manner about the street for the past few days that the sheriff concluded to have him taken and examined as to his sanity. Drs. Pike and Taylor were held in the hospital for a short time and discovered that he had a very feeble mind and was subject to some eccentricities, but decided that he was hardly a subject for the asylum. He is from Nevada and has resided for some time at Oakes, Utah.

Judge W. H. King visited Provo today.

Julie Walters appears at the Opera House tonight in "Sidelacked."

ACCIDENT AT BRIGHAM.

J. W. Jensen Seriously Injured by a Runaway.

Brigham, Nov. 30.—J. M. Jensen, one of the largest sheep owners and dealers in northern Utah, was with a serious accident at the depot this morning. A team he was driving ran away and he was quite seriously hurt, but has received proper medical care and will probably recover.

The sheriff's patient, Dr. Carrington, is resting easily and has made no more bad breaks. It is thought that some move may be made to get him committed to the asylum, but nothing definite has been done yet.

JACKSON GUILTY.

Saddle Creek Man Bound Over to Keep the Peace.

Logan, Nov. 30.—In Justice William W. Thomas' court this afternoon, the case of the State vs. M. Jackson, charged with threatening to kill one Philip Briscoe, was tried. Attorney Frank Nebeker prosecuted, and Attorney Weber of Ogden was Jackson's attorney. The controversy arose over a Copper King mining claim, situated on Saddle Creek.

Jackson was found guilty and bound over in the sum of $150 to keep the

JULY PRICES OBTAINED FOR BAR SILVER.

Bullion Dealers Have no Other Explanation to Offer But the Existence of an Active Demand and a Limited Supply—British Consols.

New York, Nov. 30.—The principal factors in today's stock market were the statements in October of the earnings of the two great railway systems of the country, namely, Pennsylvania and Burlington. Both statements made a remarkably strong showing, but that of Burlington had been discounted by a more active speculation on the rumors which have preceded the actual figures.

The earnings of the Pennsylvania for the month of October were $1,000,000, a record for the month, and a record for the year. The earnings of the Burlington for the month of October were $1,000,000, a record for the month, and a record for the year.
